About Me

I am a nursing student with a positive and uplifting attitude. I manage my time effectively to ensure completion of daily and additional tasks. I also keep my composure when working under demanding conditions and handling conflict. Covid has affected both my work and my education. Although times have been tough and my life has been put on hold, I am going to keep pushing forward in hopes to find a new and exciting opportunity that could potentially be a long lasting career.

Skills

I am proficient in time management, customer service and appreciation, and computer skills. I have a huge drive to be successful and I am a quick learner and a strong team member.
